Digital Access Right to Landslides: Journal of International Consortium on Landslides

Dear Colleagues,

ICL launched the international full journal "Landslides" since April 2004.

The Journal was approved as one of ISI journal in 2005 and obtained its first Impact factor of 0.986 last year.

Landslides is the first full color scientific journal without contribution fee. Full color photos of landslides and geological maps can be seen.

The board members of ICL are entitled to access all previous papers and on-line articles to be published and download the papers useful for you using passwords called as TOKEN.

ICL will allocate 1-5 Token for each member of ICL
500-1000 USD members: 1 Token
Others: 1 Token/1000 USD.

TOKEN and its URL will be informed to each ICL member of 2009, one by one individually from Osamu Nagai, Research Promotion Officer of ICL: nagai@iclhq.org.

You may login your account of Landslides by clicking the link of an individual Token Url such as [http://www.springerlink.com/\(individual token code\)](http://www.springerlink.com/(individual token code)).

Once you can login in the Landslides in the SpringerLink and save it in your Favorite in the Web, you may directly enter into Landslides by clicking the Favorite.

When facing a difficulty, you may ask to
Osamu Nagai nagai@iclhq.org or springerlink-ny@springer.com.

With best regards,

Kyoji SASSA

Executive Director of ICL
