

Major outputs of 2018 ICL-IPL Conference

Major outputs of this conference are:

1) Decision of the themes, sessions, their coordinators and the invited speakers of WLF5.

370 invited speakers are decided (deadline was 15 December 2018). The list will be published in February issue of Landslides. Invited speakers are defined to be able to write acceptable papers and assure to attend and orally present it in WLF5 in Kyoto.

The second call of invited speakers is ongoing (deadline is 15 March 2019). ICL wish to ask you to cooperate for calling invited speakers to WLF5. The potential invited speakers are requested to register in the Preliminary Registration of Speakers through the WLF5 web <http://wlf5.iplhq.org/preliminary-registration/> and also inform it to WLF5 secretariat <wlf5-sec@iclhq.org>.

2) The final draft of the Kyoto 2020 Commitment (KC2020) has been adopted. It will be sent to potential partners in 2019. The final draft will be signed by the first group of partners at the 2019 ICL-IPL Conference at UNESCO on 16-19 September 2019. In order to invite wider organizations to KC2020, we have decided to create a new category of ICL supporting organization as partners of KC2020. Currently those details and benefits of the ICL supporting organizations are being examined.

All ICL members (full members, associates members and supporters) and ICL supporting organizations including new categories are invited to join KC2020. KC2020 is a development of ISDR-ICL Sendai Partnerships 2015-2025 signed by 22 global stakeholders for a wide and long-term framework for the world landslide community. A new category of News/Kyoto Commitment was created in the monthly Landslides as a common platform and a newsletter within KC2020 group.

The priority actions and the partners of KC2020 will be reviewed and updated at each World Landslide Forum, and it will continue unless partners will terminate it.

The full sentence of the final draft of KC2020 is published in Editorial of Vol.16 (2). We will send the invitation to all good standing ICL members which will complete the payment of 2019 membership fee from April 2019.
